

CSNA'S 5TH ANNUAL CHEF'S CHALLENGE

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13 • 6pm during the Welcome Reception
Embassy Suites, Loveland, CO

Join Us! Join us for the 5th Annual CSNA Chef's Challenge sponsored by US Foods! 4 Teams will compete head to head in an epic school nutrition cook off. Each team will create unique dishes using surprise ingredients from a mystery basket, as well as ingredients supplied in the communal pantry. Plates will be judged based on visual appeal and presentation, creativity and use of ingredients, taste, adherence to rules, and district team spirit. The winning team receives the Chef Challenge Trophy, a knife set, and bragging rights!

DEFENDING CHAMPS!

TEAM WOLVERINE

Gabriel Aragon and Crystal Hickman
Mapleton Public Schools

We are really trying to build something special in our district, as is evident of new schools being built, programs revamped and recipes changed to reflect what we want to represent from not only a nutrition level, but a culinary and environmental aspect as well.

TEAM D & B'S GOOD EATON (EAT'N)

Debbie Clark and Becky Lawhead, Eaton SD RE-2

We are in a small district and don't have a chef, so we want others to know what we are capable of doing on our own, even though we don't have the specialized training that a chef does, we are great cooks who make great food!!!

TEAM JEFFCO FNS

Ken Holtsnider and Amanda Martin
Jefferson County Schools, JeffCo FNS

Chef Amanda Martin is the JeffCo FNS Executive Chef, her passion for healthy living is her motivation to deliver flavorful meals to students in Jefferson County. Ken Holtsnider, is a Chef in his past career and a supervisor at JeffCo. Ken enjoys cooking for his friends and family and continues to be inspired by new flavors and trends.

TEAM FRESH FIENDS

Eileen Sargent and Laura Hooper, Littleton Public Schools

Eileen is a second generation Nutrition service employee, proud to follow in her mom's footsteps, who has been in nutrition services for almost 30 years. Laura's goal is to convince parents in Littleton how amazing school food in LPS really is and to stop packing lunches! Eileen and Laura are passionate advocates for school nutrition and look forward to being a part of the future of our industry.
